A MOTHER'S DREAD.

A fear clutches at the heart of the mother that her own little one may not child. A baby and its mother are insured against ill-health if the mother takes Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription, a tonic for women that Dr. R. V. Pierce invented over a third of a century ago for women's ills. This is a vegetable tonic, made only of barks, medicine for suffering women that there roots and herbs, which puts the females is to be had in the country. I want to system into perfect, healthy action. Be-fore baby's coming it is just the uterine tonic that puts the womanly system into a proper condition to make the birth painless and to insure a healthy child.

I could not get my strength back. States have reason to be grateful to the person who recommended Dr. Pierce's Pavorite Prescription. It does not cure which are so much advertised, and found eczema, catarrh in all its forms, nor no relief). I had little faith in the medheart disease, for it is put up for the single purpose of curing disease pecular to women. It has a reputation of week after I had commenced taking over thirty-eight years of cures, and has sold more largely on this continent than any other medicine for women. Another seemed to come with each succeeding point in its favor: it does not contain a single drop of alcohol nor of any nar-cotic. It is purely vegetable. An alco-holic compound for women is something no woman should take. Womanly weakness will always bring on nervous irritability and alcohol is the very worst needs is a vegetable tonic which will build up her delicate system and bring about a healthy tone. This Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription does, as no other remedy can. It cures the drains and weaknesses of women, and the manufacturers offer to pay $500 in legal money of the United States, for any case of Leu-corrhea, Female Weakness, Prolapsus, or Falling of Womb, which they cannot cure. All they ask is a fair and reasonable trial of their means of cure.

Many people owe their present good health to the fact that they consulted Dr. Pierce by letter, giving him all pos-sible information about their condition, symptoms, etc., and received in return good medical advice which cost them nothing. This is why we advise you to write to Dr. R. V. Pierce, the founder of the Invalids' Hotel and Surgical Institute, at Buffalo N. Y.

Dr. Pierce by no means confines himelf to prescribing his well-known medielnes. He tells you in the most comshould know is contained in that book mon-sense way what ails you, what you of 1000 pages, which has now reached ought to do, what line of treatment its sixty-first edition

GOING SCOT FREE.

The origin of the old saying, "Going scot free," is this: Scot, from the Anglo-Saxon "sceot," a portion, signified n old law a customary tax or contribution laid on subjects according to their ability and embraced all parochial assessments. The conclusion is obvious-namely, that to escape "scot free" was to avoid all such payments of dues and taxes.

Before the reform act the right to vote for parliamentary and municipal officers was vested exclusively in pay ers of "scot and lot." Rastall (1558 speaks of it as a certain tallage for the use of the sheriff or his bailiff, and in Kent the usual rates paid in Romney marsh for repairing sea walls are known by the same name.

"Scot," says Camden, "is that which from various sources is gathered into one heap"—literally that which is "shot" into a general fund, from the investment in the valley. Inquire Dutch and low German "schot." This of the Expositor. nations of Its Origin.

The word "humbug" has been traced back to the title page of "The Universal Jester, a choice collection of merry conceits, bonmots and humbugs, by Ferdinando Killigrew, London, 1735-40." The following are the most plausible and possible deriva-

In the time of James II. a worthless coin was minted at Dublin from a soft mixed metal, which became known as uim bog, pronounced Ocombug-i. e., soft copper, worthless money.

Some see in it a corruption of Hamurg, from which town so many false eports came during the war of 1799-1806 that such news was received with "Oh, that is a Hamburg!"

Others refer it to hum, in the sense of hoax, and bug, in the old sense of oughear. Others say it is merely hum ouzz, used in combination to signify sound without sense. Others, again think that it was first applied to Hom berg, a chemist and an ardent seeker of the philosopher's stone.—Notes and

Addressing the Queen. The divinity that doth hedge a king expresses itself in some curious ways, and to people who are not accustomed to associating with these exalted per sonages royal etiquette is in many points very puzzling. To those who meet Queen Alexandra constantly i probably does not seem strange to ad dress her as "ma'am," but to unaccus tomed ears this monosyllable does no sound quite respectful. Yet, according to the Ladies' Field, the queen is ad dressed as "ma'am" by all the mem bers of the upper classes, the term "your majesty" being rarely used except on formal occasions, while the Princess of Wales and all the princesses of the blood royal of England are addressed in the same way. The king, English princes are addressed as "sir. Yet foreign princes and princesses bearing the title of serene highness must not be addressed as sir or ma'am, but as prince and princess. A letter to the sovereign must begin thus: "His majesty the king" and below the single word, "sir." The conclusion of the letter would be worded somewhat as follows: "I have the honor to submit

A boat large enough to carry six persons may be carried in a valise or corner of a trunk. This is because the principle of the pneumatic tire has been ing. These boats are of two kinds, either of rubber cloth inflated with air and divided into two compartments, or of a series of inflated tubes coiled lengthwise. These are fitted with pneumatic seats, and the oarlocks are buckled on the sides. > Report and a Greeting In One Breath Rear Admiral Goodrich, U. S. N., delights in telling of an incident in con nection with the seismic disturbance which was felt Christmas morning of 1890 at San Francisco. "I was in my quarters," he said. "unaware of anything unusual, until I was awakened by an Irish orderly, who, after knocking at my door in the most respectful manner, said, 'I have th' honor to rayport th' compliments av th' officer av th' deck, who says there's been an earthquake, an', furthermore, I wish you a merry Christmas.' The Friendship of Youth. Two boys brought up together some times remain fast friends for life, but not so commonly as one might sup pose. "I thought you had a little friend with you today, Tommy," said a lady to a child who was walking about alone and disconsolate. "I have a little friend, but I hate him!" was the reply. And the words contain a whole essay ful of comment upon the value of friendship founded solely upon pro-pinquity.—London Spectator.
